

Goering & Granatino, P.A.
CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

Intern

If you're an accounting student looking for an internship at a firm with a culture that supports personal growth, collaborative relationships, and innovative minds through a flexible working environment, you may be a great fit for our internship program. We are looking for accounting interns who are curious, creative, motivated, tech-savvy, and eager to learn to join our team of MVPs.

Be ready to jump in and learn. As an intern, you will have an opportunity to help our team serve individuals and small to medium-sized entities in a variety of industries. You will learn how to perform individual and business tax planning and preparation, accounting services, and payroll. You will get a glimpse of how CPAs offer insights to clients, so these clients can continue to be productive and profitable.

When you choose to join us, you will do so in an environment where your goals are respected and where you will work collaboratively with other team members to solve problems.

We're looking for interns who:

- Possess strong communication skills
- Are motivated and committed
- Have the ability to self-learn and apply their technical skills
- Demonstrate an active interest in the business world by keeping up with trends and developments
- Are flexible team players and are accountable for their tasks and projects
- Embrace curiosity and innovation
- Know Microsoft Office programs

We will provide the technologies, training and procedures to perform your job confidently. And you'll have the support of the partners to develop your own personal network of contacts and be actively involved in the community.

If you'd like to be part of an evolving accounting firm that takes pride in not being stereotypical, please contact us. No agencies, please.
